About ACS(I)

The Association of Cutaneous Surgeons of India - ACS(I) - is the premier organization in the country devoted to the promotion and advancement of knowledge and skills in the field of surgical and aesthetic dermatology.

The aim of the association is to educate dermatologists, conduct conferences and workshops, promote research and assist in public health education in the field of dermatologic surgery and thereby, improve the quality of cutaneous surgery training in the country. ACS(I) is in existence since 1999. Its roots, however, go back to the last quinquennium of the 20th century when it was formed by the merger of two national bodies representing cutaneous surgeons in the country - the Association of Dermatologic Surgeons of India (ADSI)* and the Indian Academy of Cutaneous Surgeons (IACS), established in 1995 and 1996 respectively.

The Editorial

Dr Manas Ranjan Puhan
Secretary General, ACS(I)

Dear ACS(I) members

Jay Jagannath.

Greetings from ACS(I) secretariat.

I am happy to release the next issue of news letter of Association of Cutaneous Surgeons of India-ACSIPEN-2023, Volume 16, Issue 1. I am indeed privileged to be secretary of ACS(I) as well as editor of ACSIPEN-2023. It is hard to take this task from my predecessor, energetic and always enthusiastic Dr. Dinesh kumar Devaraj who has proved to be an efficient secretary of ACS(I) and editor of ACSIPEN whom I always complement for doing a wonderful job. I sincerely thank the last EC, specially Dr R Raghunatha Reddy, our immediate past president for constantly guiding me. The current EC including President Dr Shyamanta Barua sir and my good friend and treasurer Dr Debjit Kar are more than a family and supported me in every step.

This issue is being published just prior to annual conference of ACSICON 2023. It gives us great pleasure to invite you to the 21st Annual Conference of Association of Cutaneous Surgeons (I) on October 5-7 at Hotel Le Méridien, Nagpur. The conference will be hosted by the Vidarbha Dermatology Society (VDS) in association with the Association of Cutaneous Surgeons (I). Dr. Rizwan Hag, Organising chairperson and Dr Nitin Barde, Organising secretary have left no stone unturned to make it a memorable event with an excellent scientific feast. I thank the acsicon team for their efforts in this difficult scenario due to lots of restrictions from NMC. Hope this will create a new milestone in conference history.

This ACSIPEN is focused to sensitize the members about the matters related to ACS(I) and to encourage them to participate in the conference. The main purpose of the newsletter is to communicate to the members, all the current activities of our association and future projects. Dr. Sandeep Arora has done a commendable job as Editor-in-chief of JCAS and I must congratulate her and her entire editorial team for bringing out quality journal on regular basis. The ACS(I) Millennial and ZEN Z committees have done wonderful work for the young dermatosurgeons. The Facebook live programme and comic strips are highly appreciated by all. I thank the ACS(I) academy for the constant support for planning various scientific activities and evaluating the awards.

We have continued membership drive initiated by previous EC. We have been sensitizing all dermatologists in India to become ACS(I) members and presently membership number has touched 2722. We have developed an app for smooth functioning of ACS(I) and easy dissemination of information among the members. The PLM to LM conversion request can be put via Google Form available in our website : www.acsinet.net

I thank, our President ACS(I), Dr. Shyamanta Barua for his constant encouragement and support for all the endeavours of ACS(I). He is the force behind all the activities. I also immensely thank our treasurer Dr. Debjit Kar who has always been maintaining record meticulously and trying hard for completion of timely auditing with the help from Dr Jagadish P. I also thank all Executive Committee members for their constant support and guidance. I consider myself privileged and fortunate to be associated with such an elite and highly experienced team of office bearers.

Before ending my tenure as Secretary General of ACS(I) I request each and every member to actively participate in academic activities and all senior dermatologists to teach young dermatosurgeons.

Looking forward to meet you all at Nagpur, during ACSICON 2023.

Jai Hind, Long Live ACS(I)

Dr Manas Ranjan Puhan
Secretary General, ACS(I)

Presidential Note

Dr Shyamanta Barua
President, ACS (I)

Dear Colleagues,

It has been an honour and privilege to lead our closely knit organisation over the last two years. I must express my heartfelt thanks to all my fellow members of the Outgoing ACS(I) National Executive who worked cohesively to execute the association programs. I was blessed to have the wise counsel of our Immediate Past President – Dr. R. Raghunatha Reddy – for various issues. Our Secretary General – Dr. Manas Ranjan Puhan – was the hardworking fulcrum of the ACS(I) Secretariat and our Treasurer – Dr. Debjit Kar – meticulously managed our finances. My special thanks to both of them. Our Vice Presidents – Dr. Shashikumar BM and Dr. Jagadish P – lent their experience to the planning and execution of programs while our Joint Secretaries – Dr. Jaishree Sharad and Dr. Rema Devi TJ – supervised the activities of Committees. The ACS(I) Academy of Dermatosurgery, led by Dr. Swapnil Shah and Dr. Anal Jyoti Bordoloi as its Chairperson and Convener respectively, coordinated the ACS(I) Observership Program and evaluated the academic submissions for various awards of the association. The flagship journal of our association - Journal of Cutaneous and Aesthetic Surgery - continues to soar high under the capable leadership of the Editor-in-Chief - Dr. Sandeep Arora.

I am glad that the third edition of the Textbook of Cutaneous & Aesthetic Surgery is finally being published and the hard copies should be available very soon. This edition is a comprehensive and well-illustrated compendium that extensively covers the latest developments in the subspecialty of surgical, laser and aesthetic dermatology. It is hoped that it will be a handy reference for both practicing dermatologists and residents in training. I am grateful to our Editor-in-Chief - Brig. Dr. Manas Chatterjee, Associate Editor - Col. Dr. Biju Vasudevan, all members of the Editorial Board and authors for their valuable contributions.

The ACS(I) Millennials, led by Dr. Saloni Katoch as its Chairperson and Dr. Preethi B Nayak as its Convener, worked with passion and earnestness to reach out to all young dermatologists who are in their early years of academics and practice with various innovative programs and initiatives. The second issue of the Newsletter – ACS(I) for You(th) – is one such endeavour that showcases their creativity. I hope the benchmark of fruitful work initiated by this team will be carried forward so that it shapes up as the driving force of our association in the years ahead.

The ACS(I) Dermatosurgery Quiz saw the enthusiastic participation of postgraduate residents from colleges across the country in the screening round conducted online. This was conducted with finesse by our Quizmasters – Dr. Namitha Chathra and Dr. Gaurav Dash. My congratulations and good wishes to them and to the best eight teams that will vie for the top honours in the National Prelims and National Finals to be held during ACSICON 2023.

My deepest appreciation to Dr. Rizwan Haq, Dr. Vikrant Saoji, Dr. Nitin Barde, Dr. Sanjiv Choudhary, Dr. Riyaz Amir and all others in the vibrant Organising Team of Nagpur for toiling as a cohesive unit surmounting all organisational challenges and leaving no stone unturned to make ACSICON 2023 a delectable academic feast and a carnival of conviviality to remember and cherish for a lifetime. I invite all of you to ACSICON 2024 to be held at Mahabalipuram in August next year and wish the best to Dr. Dinesh Kr. Devaraj, Dr. A. Selvam, Dr. Avitus John and all others in the Organising Team of Chennai to carry forward the rich legacy of ACS(I) Conferences and make it another ACSICON to cherish.

My congratulations and best wishes to the Incoming ACS(I) National Executive. I am hopeful that the new leadership will infuse ACS(I) with fresh energy and novel ideas that will make the association even more cohesive, progressive, responsive and vibrant. I conclude by thanking all members of our association for their support, cooperation, and guidance over the last two years. Long live ACS(I)!

The ACS(I) EC is working constantly for betterment of the association. Various activities including Facebook live and Jugged in my skin competition carried out by the Millennial committee. Newsletter of Millennial and ZEN Zcommittee are going to be released in AGBM. Various comic strips have been published. All awards have been evaluated by academy and the certificates will be given during ACSICON 2023. The prestigious ADQ-2023 programme conducted smoothly and the best 8 teams selected by the quiz masters. SUN pharma has agreed for sponsoring the quiz program for this year. The venue visit to Chennai is successful and details will be tabulated during AGBM. The official APP of ACS(I) has been launched during ACSICON 2022 for smooth transmission of information to the members and also easy handling of new member applications. The PLM to LM conversion request form is being placed in website for smooth functioning.

It gives us immense pleasure to acknowledge the magnanimous contribution of Team ACSICON-2022, led by none other than Dr T Salim. After 2 unprecedented years lost to Covid, ACS(I) limped back to normalcy with ACSICON Guwahati. The stage was all set for the next big ticket event, ACSICON 2022, Waynad, Kerala. The first big event in Dermatology post Covid. The journey was tough, but what an innings played by the super energetic team ACSICON 2022 led by Dr T Salim. From a picturesque Waynad at God's own country to amazing food. From a Mascot Kabani to awesome Culinary delights and from scintillating sessions to gruelling workshops, you name it and they had it. Conference delivered to perfection. And to end it all, the icing on the cake was the unprecedented jackpot contribution of: 11111111.11 (one crore eleven lakhs eleven thousand one hundred and eleven rupees and eleven paisas), a lot of 1 by undoubtedly a "no:1 conference". This is the largest ever contribution in ACSICON history. To add to their penchant for perfection, all accounts were properly maintained and coordinated with the CA perfectly in time. ACS(I) will remain forever grateful to Team ACSICON 2022 for this gesture. From the whole EC we once again thank the team ACSICON 2022 for everything.

Long live ACS(I)..

ACS(I) MILLENNIALS COMMITTEE REPORT 2022-2023

As the curtains draw to a close for the first ACS(I) Millennials committee, we feel a deep sense of gratitude and fulfillment for being able to engage and bring to the forefront the younger generation of cutaneous surgeons in the country. This committee is a novel initiative crafted under the vision of ACS(I) President Dr. Shyamanta Barua and Secretary General Dr. Manas Ranjan Puhan. It is one of a kind endeavour under ACS(I), a forum exclusively for young cutaneous surgeons under the age of 40 years. ACS(I) Millennials aims at empowering the youth in dermatosurgery and cosmetic dermatology by providing them a platform to get involved in ACS(I) activities from the very beginning of their career. The committee was started under the able leadership of Chairperson Dr. Saloni Katoch and Convener Dr. Preethi B Nayak. The young army of ACS(I) millennials include members from all across the country namely Dr. Atoka Sumi, Dr. Atul Bothra, Dr. Deepak Jakhar, Dr. Dhanraj Chavan, Dr. Jeet Gandhi, Dr. Komal Agarwal, Dr. Rohan Bhattacharjee, Dr. Sujala S Aradhya and Dr. Sunmeet Sandhu. ACS(I) millennials have striven hard each and every day to reach out to the young cutaneous surgeons throughout India.

The programs conducted under the ACS(I) millennials in their second year of service from August 2022 to August 2023 are as follows :

1. The Practice Management live broadcast series :

Live sessions were conducted on Instagram with senior faculty and experts for guiding and motivating young dermatologists' setting up their clinics and practice. The sessions covered various practical aspects of practice management ranging from finances to clinic management, work-life balance to setting up a practice, marketing to acquiring skills etc. The topics that were discussed were as follows:

3. ACS(I) millennials Newsletter

The first issue of ACS(I) for You(th) was recieved well. The second issue of ACS(I) millennials newsletter is in the making with Dr. Komal Agarwal and Dr. Rohan Bhattacharjee as the editors. With a compendium of interesting articles and creative artwork, the newsletter will surely captivate one's intellect and imagination. Our heartfelt gratitude to the editors, committee members, authors and the layout designer, Mr. Shridhar for their dedication towards this endeavour.

4. ACS(I) millennials Comic strips - The Dermat Diaries

Taking patient education to the next level are these colourful and attractive cartoon strips by Dr. Gitika Sanodia. These educative comic strips are being uploaded on our social media platforms on a regular basis and can be shared with patients and doctors alike. Dr. Gitika has contributed numerous comic strips under the name, 'The Dermat Diaries', so far. These are brief, easy to understand, to the point and very knowledgeable.

5. Surveys and Research

In October 2022, a survey study on 'Dermatosurgical and Aesthetic procedures taught during post graduation and their utility in practice' was conducted. Dr. Sunmeet Sandhu headed this project and was instrumental in drafting of the survey. The questionnaire was divided into two parts for ease of understanding (Aesthetic dermatology and Dermatosurgery). We requested dermatologists who had finished their post graduation after 2010 to fill this questionnaire, which was circulated on online platforms like WhatsApp and Facebook. The findings of the same have been drafted and will be submitted for publication. This will help in better understanding of needs and requirements of procedural skill enhancement and learning in young dermatologists. This will also help in identifying lacunae in training and skill acquisition for Dermatologists in early years of practice. Identifying potential problem areas will help in better understanding and devising of workshops for this age group of doctors.

Dermatosurgical and aesthetic procedure survey

This is a survey based study on the various dermatosurgical and aesthetic procedures being taught during postgraduation (PG) and their usage post PG to understand their practical utility. This will bring clarity to the specific procedures that can be concentrated while being taught during PG.

6. An active Instagram account

We are proud and take this opportunity to announce that we currently have 1428 followers on our official Instagram handle. We actively post educative content, have live sessions and engage with our followers via messages. Some queries regarding ACS(I) observerships, membership etc were also addressed with referral to the concerned authority. We at ACS(I) millennials believe that, this is just the beginning of a revolution and there is much more to come.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank the ACS(I) executive, our team members and each and every person who has helped and supported us. Our heartfelt gratitude to Shyamanta Barua sir, Manas Puhan sir, all our senior members and colleagues who have guided and provided us, with all that we needed, to create a forum, in order to voice the thoughts and opinions of young cutaneous surgeons of the country. As we complete our tenure, we wish the incoming team of the ACS(I) Millennials the very best and hope that the committee continues to engage with the generation next in innovative, educative and trailblazing ways.

Best wishes,

Report of Honorary Treasurer

Dr Debjit Kar
Treasurer, ACS (I)

Dear members

Time flies.....

From a noviceto a person now with fair share of information about management of treasury, it has been quite a journey.. Under the watchful eyes of our President Dr Shyamanta Barua and the Secretary General , the Yes Man Dr Manas Ranjan Puhon , who from the non strikers end and watched my every move and ensured that I bat well and team ACSI could get a decent score the end of the innings.

Dr Jagdish Gowda and or Shashi Kumar BM were like my lifelines of phone a friend who were just a call away , always there to suggest out of the box solutions . Throughout these two years Dr Raghunath Reddy our immediate past president , guided us in all matters financial and beyond . Reiterating his commitment to ACSI and proving that once a ACSIAN , always an Acscian

Taking up the mantle during the tough COVID times I along with this EC saw the gradual transition from chaos to normalcy. The funds kept on slowly coming, improving the financial health of our association. But the the jackpot contribution came from team ACSICON , Waynad led by Dr T Salim and team who contributed a whopping amount of Rs 1,11,11,111 (OnCrore Eleven lakhs Eleven thousand one hundred eleven rupees), with plenty of auspicious ONES in it .

From a shaky start this amount came as the perfect vaccine for the financial health of ACSI ensuring our coffers remain healthy for years to come.

Dr Sandeep Arora ensured the right support as editor JCAS , not only dealing with all JCAS related issues but also arranging funds and additional sponsorship for JCAS through his novel idea of industry sponsored symposium .

An honourable mention of our auditors, Mr Vikas Oswal and his team led by Mr Ali who were always forthcoming in their job bringing the gap between dermatological knowledge and financial literacy.

Looking forward to a stronger, brighter and a more resilient ACSI in days to come.

Its to sign off.

Dr Debjit Kar
Treasurer , ACS(I)

aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

We have taken into account the provisions of the Act, the accounting and auditing standards and matters which are required to be included in the audit report under the Standards on Auditing and the Rules made there under. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing specified by ICAI. Those Standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

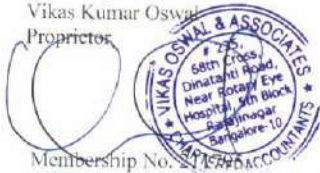

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and the disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal financial control relevant to the Association's preparation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on whether the Association has in place an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and the operating effectiveness of such controls. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of the accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by the Association's Managing Committee, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the standalone financial statements.

Editor in chief JCAS

Dear members

It has been a year since the new editorial board took over. Recovering post pandemic, the editorial board and the publishers have taken great strides in catching up to current publication standards and timelines. Standing on shoulders of giants, our former editorial boards, who have prepped up the journal to such heights, it's been a tough task to maintain and improve a PubMed indexed, internationally acknowledged journal, focused on a niche community of dermatologists and aesthetic surgeons.

The journal has SCImago Journal Rank Indicator of 2022 at Q3 (0.244). It reflects a journal's impact, and prestige with weightage to citations in a year compared to the previous three years. We strive to improve this and place us in the Q2 in the coming years.

Our journal metrics show a healthy trend with a time for first editorial decision at 23 days and 49 days from revision receipt and review. All articles if accepted are done so within 100 days. Our rejection rate presently stands between 40-50%. Only articles directed at readership of cutaneous and aesthetic surgeons are being accepted. We give preference to clinically oriented studies over experimental and animal studies. Articles pertaining to plastic surgery, maxillofacial surgery, vascular surgery, oculoplastic surgery etc., that are relevant to Dermatosurgery and occasional exceptional article on core dermatology topics with surgical implications are accepted for review. Clarivate indexing is a work in progress, and we shall reapply for it shortly.

Initiatives to improve the journal quality, author and readership satisfaction have been taken. A common grouse of late print publications had led to withdrawal requests and complaints. 'Ahead of Print' version of the articles referenced with their DOI has been implemented with over 60 articles placed as this on the journal website.

Symposiums to showcase a treatment modality or upcoming techniques and devices along with topic centric issues are planned and we plan to publish two such issues a year. With an effort to go green we have print issues with only original articles, invited articles, CME, and review articles. All other articles are published in the online issue with adequate referencing including their DOI. This is also reflected in print with referencing of the online only articles as well.

I am assisted with an excellent team of associate editors Dr. Bikash Kar, Dr Swapnil Shah, Dr Gulhima Arora, Dr Savitha Somaiah, and Dr David Pudukadan and very dedicated assistant editors Dr. Saurabh Singh, Dr Balkrishna Nikam, Dr. Eeshaan Ranjan, Dr. Manasa Jeanney, and Dr. Sivasankari. Their contributions and newer ideas and insights have been invaluable in functioning of the journal office.

On behalf of the editorial team, I am extremely thankful to the support extended by Dr. Shyamanta Barua our ACS(I) president, Dr. Manas Puhan, Secretary General ACS(I) and Dr Debjit Kar (Treasurer) for allowing us to pursue that one goal we all have: 'Create new knowledge - publish the best research'.

Zonal workshop on “Management of acne scars and hyperpigmentary disorders” conducted at AIIMS, Nagpur

The Department of Dermatology, AIIMS Nagpur, in collaboration with Vidarbha Dermatology Society [VDS] and Association of Cutaneous Surgeons of India [ACS(I)] has successfully conducted one day live zonal workshop on the theme “Management of acne scars and hyperpigmentary disorders” on 8th January, 2023.

This event was successfully conducted under the able guidance of Maj. Gen. (Dr.) Vibha Dutta, SM, Director & CEO, AIIMS, Nagpur, Dr. Mrunal Phatak Dean (Academics) AIIMS, Nagpur and Dr. Manish Shrigiriwar, Medical Superintendent, AIIMS, Nagpur. As per the scientific chairman Dr Sanjiv Choudhary, Additional Professor and faculty-in-charge, Department of Dermatology, AIIMS, Nagpur, this theme was chosen as both acne scars and hyperpigmentary disorders are difficult to treat by medical management alone and it requires intervention with dermatosurgery, lasers and procedures like chemical peeling.

The inaugural ceremony was held in the august presence Dr Shyamanta Barua, President, ACSI, Dr Manas Puhan, Secretary, ACSI, Dr Swapnil Shah, Academy convener, ACSI, Dr Sudhir Mamidwar, President, VDS and Dr Nitin Barde, Secretary VDS, Dr Sanjiv Choudhary, scientific chairman, Dr. Rizwan Haq, organising co-chairman and Dr. Gitesh Sawatkar, joint organizing secretary. The Workshop was attended by more than 140 delegates from Nagpur and nearby states of MP and Chhatisgarh. This was a live zonal workshop in which faculty from various parts of India came to AIIMS Nagpur and demonstrated most advanced techniques like MNRF, micropunch excision, fat grafting, dermapen, lasers, chemical peeling etc for the treatment of acne scars and hyperpigmentary disorders. A good interaction between speakers and audience occurred during live sessions followed by a panel discussion by the experts.

The program concluded in the evening with a vote of thanks from the organizing secretary Dr Nitin Barde, Secretary, VDS. As per him, AIIMS and VDS will be regularly conducting such type of academic activities to upgrade the knowledge of both postgraduate students as well as the practicing dermatologists.

ACS(I) AGBM 2022 16/09/2022, Friday, 4.30-6:30pm, Wayanad, Kerala

Annual General Body Meeting of Association of cutaneous surgeons (I). Held on 16.09.22 and attended by EC members and 24 more ACSI members.

Welcome and opening address by president : Dr. Shyamanta Barua welcomed all attendees to the Annual General Body Meeting of the Association and gave an overview of the activities that were conducted over the preceding year and those that were planned for the year ahead.

He then asked the Secretary General - Dr. Manas Ranjan Puhan - to give his Secretarial report.

Secretary General Report by Dr Manas ranjan Puhan:

ACS(I) Membership

August 2021-August 2022: 2352-2572 members

17 applications pending due to CPS issue etc.

Academic Meetings

Dermoscopy workshop Bangalore 23.10.21

Advanced acne and acne scarring course

SCB zoom workshop

Vitiligo day Rourkela workshop

ACS(I) Official meetings

EC meeting on 14.9.21, 21.12.21, 1.2.22, 31.5.22

ACSICON 2022 meeting 10.3.22, 21.4.22

Dr Raghunatha Reddy proposed that an amendment will be made in the constitution within the next 3 months at the EGBM and all CPS candidates can be given associate membership. Do not cancel the 17 pending applications. This needs a proposal from members and to be decided in next EC meeting. Mails to be sent to them saying we shall let them know after next meeting, but if anyone wants to cancel his or her application, the money will be refunded.

The ACS(I) EC is working constantly for betterment of the association. Various activities including Facebook live and Jugged in my skin competition carried out by the Millennial committee. Newsletter of Millennial and ZEN Zcommittee are going to be released in AGBM. Various comic strips have been published. All awards have been evaluated by academy and the certificates will be given during ACSICON 2022. The prestigious AIDQ-2022 programme conducted smoothly and the best 8 teams selected by the quiz masters. The account opening is complete with lots of difficulties and now onwards all transactions will be from new Indusland bank account. Many programmes are in pipeline and we are trying to finalise pharma participation for various workshops. The ACSICON 2022 team had done an excellent job and I wish the conference a great success. ACSI phone app quotation from simple solution was discussed. Dr Patwardhan proposed we try the app for 1 year and not 3 years.

On 19th June 2022 the central ACS(I) committee members comprising Dr Shyamanta Barua, President ACS(I), Dr Manas Ranjan Puhan, Secretary General ACS(I) and Dr P Jagadish, Vice President ACS(I) visited Nagpur Maharashtra for finalising ACSICON 2023 venue at Nagpur. The ACSICON 2023 organizing team comprising of Chairman Dr Rizwan Haq, Secretary, Dr Nitin Barde, Treasurer, Dr Reyaz Aamir and scientific Chairperson Dr Sanjeev Choudhary accompanied them to the venues which were already selected by organizing team. AIMS Nagpur was finalized for conducting the workshops. For the conference 3 places were visited to look at the facilities and feasibilities. Chitnavis Center in the heart of the city has 3 halls of 250 - 300 capacity. It was not considered as an alternate dome arrangements of larger sitting capacity would be required. The second venue Surabardi lawns was not considered as the distance from the city was a bit far and there were not adequate hotels and staying arrangements nearby. The 3rd option Empress lawns was considered as a better venue with regards to accessibility and location. However the committee pointed out about certain lacunae specifically lack of toilet facilities and certain constraints in space as regards exhibition area.

In the evening a memorandum of understanding was signed between ACS(I) President, Secretary and ACSICON 2023 organizing chairman and secretary.

Meanwhile the organizing committee ACSICON 2023 informed the ACS(I) President and secretary about the availability of another venue.

The Eden Greenz lawn and golf course was selected by the Nagpur organizing team for its better infrastructure and accessibility. During the visit of ACS(I) team the above mentioned venue was not physically shown as there was a shift in management and the venue was not operational during covid times.

At the virtual meet held with the ACS(I) office bearers this venue was presented and discussed. So the organizing committee of ACSICON 2023 went ahead in finalizing this venue.

ACS(I) MEMBERSHIP FEE REVISION

A committee comprising of three past secretary were formed to suggest membership fee revision as per AGBM mandate. The committee members were

Other :

We have invited fresh applications for ACS(I) observership this year.

A dermoscopy workshop was arranged by academy member Dr. Debdeep Mitra at Bangaluru.

An online acne course was endorsed and designed by ACS(I) academy in collaboration with DCOTotechnologies, Mangalore.

ACS(I) and IADV(L)O celebrated Vitiligo Day with a day long CME at Hotel Mayfair, Rourkela, Odisha on June 25, 2022.

4 National faculties graced the occasion namely Dr Siddhartha Das, Dr Manas Chatterjee, Dr Somesh Gupta and Dr Anupam Das, along with dermatologists across Odisha. It was a hybrid conference with live streaming of the sessions. It was followed by a patient interaction session by Dr Manas Chatterjee, Dr CSSirka & Dr Debjit Kar.

The highlight of the event was "Vitiligo Premier League" a novel way of Panel Discussion with academics and a touch of fun, which left the audience in splits.

JCAS report by Dr Sandeep Arora:

Dr Shehnaz Arsiwala Editor in chief JCAS

This is my last report as an Editor in Chief of journal and aesthetic surgery and the post has humbled me with all the experiences and responsibilities.

I have completed my 3-year tenure in succession to Dr Imran Majid and took up the reigns of this very esteemed and prestigious journal of cutaneous and aesthetic surgery in oct 2019.

This has been a great curve for growth both personally and professionally as our editorial team received, reviewed and published a great variety of articles from our esteemed colleagues all over the world from dermatologists to plastic surgeons and allied fields pertaining to cutaneous and aesthetic surgery.

ACS(I) AGBM 2022 16/09/2022, Friday, 4.30-6:30pm, Wayanad, Kerala

This period between 2019 to 2022 also faced the covid 19 pandemic which changed lives and practices for many people across the world and saw challenging times for the health care world. The pandemic brought dermatological and aesthetic procedures to a standstill globally with losses of practices and lives of many from and outside our field. Interventional physicians faced tough challenges to restart procedures with new safety protocols and new guidelines came into action. This phase of our journal saw a huge surge in number of submitted articles both covid related and non-covid related, procedure protocol related, new innovations for safety and guidelines were published. We have also published a number of guidelines and articles related to safe practices during the COVID 19 pandemic.

Our editorial team has worked tirelessly through these challenging times and were successful in the timely release of 12 issues of the journal. The editorial team has handled around 400 articles with reviews and rereviews to put together the issues which were well appreciated. A mammoth responsibility as our editorial team of assistant and associate editor's micromanages internal reviews and an exhaustive list of reviewers whom I am grateful for timely external and peer reviews which bring the journal to the next level. The advisory opinions are crucial during difficult stages to make absolutely perfect articles available to our readers. The number of articles published per issue have risen from 12 per issue in 2019, to around 18 per issue in 2020 and 23-25 articles per issue in 2021-2022.

The phase also saw migration of the journal from old website to new online submission site which was very friendly and easy to operate but came in with some challenges as most of the publishing team were working from home during the pandemic and some lives were lost to the pandemic.

We are very proud to announce that the impact factor of our journal increased from 0.83 to 1.11 and growth by 29.7% in 2021 to 2022.

I sincerely thank all the office bearers of association of cutaneous surgeons of India ACS I TEAM who have supported the JCAS journal and the entire editorial team wholeheartedly.

With a heavy heart I hand over the reigns of this journal to our upcoming editor in chief Dr Sandeep Arora, I am greatly indebted to all the authors, reviewers and advisors who have immensely contributed with vast knowledge, experience, innovation and research to shaping this journal to its present status.

I wish Dr Sandeep Arora and his team great success.

We thank Dr Shyamantha Barua our ACSI president and Dr Manas Ranjan Puhon our secretary for extreme support for smooth functioning for the JCAS

ACS(I) AGBM 2022
16/09/2022, Friday, 4.30-6:30pm, Wayanad, Kerala

At the end of my tenure, I ask for forgiveness to all those authors who submitted their work but could not be published, or any delay or shortcomings they faced pertaining to their submissions in my tenure.

As my late father, a doctor himself always said "A spoken word is always forgotten but a written word stays archived in history of journals for ever!

I encourage all Indian dermatologists to publish more. I am glad that I could contribute this much to literature in cutaneous and aesthetic surgery!

Long live ACS(I)

Good bye and thank you.

DR SHEHNAZ ARSIWALA

EDITOR IN CHIEF JCAS

Editorial team has been authorised to explore possibilities of other publishing house under Dr Manas Chatterjee's guidance.

Journal funds should be separate. EC may consider a hybrid version of journal where case reports, letters etc can be only digital.

Minutes of ACS(I) CC Meeting 20 August, 2023 | Hybrid Mode

We are supposed to receive an amount of three lakhs per symposium . This will add a lot of value to our journal . Everyone congratulated Dr Sandeep Arora for this novel initiative.

Approval for the same to be taken in the CEC meeting

An advertisement of ACSICON Nagpur to come up in the next issue of JCAS.

The number of pages in the journal has been reduced by around 10 to 20% to reduce the financial burden on the association , without disturbing the basic structure and necessary articles.

7. An online meeting has been planned between EC and teamACSICON, Nagpur to take stock of their preparedness and abreast them regarding all rules and guidelines to be followed in the next ACSICON.

8. Our past president Dr Sachchidananda will be serving as the next returning officer for the next election for EC members, for the next tenure and regarding the venue for ACSICON, 2025.

9. ACSI textbook of DermatoSurgery

The progress regarding that was assessed and everyone was glad to know that it has finally reached its logical conclusion and is almost ready for printing after much delay.

A meeting to this effect to be convened soon between EC and editors, Dr Manas Chaterjee and Dr Biju Vasudevan and publishers JP Brothers

10. A meeting with the Academy to be held soon.

11. Dr T Salim presented the ACSICON 2022 report. All members congratulated team ACSICON 2022 for a huge success and great saving for the association. All financial matters has been submitted to the auditor and all GST have been paid in time.

12. Dr Nitin Barde presented the ACSICON 2023 report. The scientific sessions are well planned and good numbers of registrations are happening. Various workshops have been finalised and promotion is done via mail and social media.

13. Proposals :

A. ACS(I) Online certificate course

Dr. Shyamanta Barua | Dr. Shashi Kumar B M | Dr. Debjit Kar | Dr. Manas Ranjan Puhan | Dr. Swapnil Shah | Dr. Savitha A S

- Certificate courses on various skills in Dermatosurgery is a long felt need amongst our young members. In the absence of structured teaching of such skills in our MD curriculum, such courses under the aegis of the association will help to upskill our members and provide legitimacy to various dermatosurgery procedures

- We propose to start online structured courses with ACS(I) certification on multiple skills such as suturing, acne surgery, vitiligo surgery, cryosurgery, microblading etc.

- Course Content: The ACS(I) Academy will formulate the syllabus of each course

Minutes of ACS(I) CC Meeting 20 August, 2023 | Hybrid Mode

- Course Structure : There will be weekly online teaching with regular formative assessments done by ACS(I) members with expertise in that skill designated as Faculty for that course. An end-of-course hands-on training cum summative assessment can be conducted at the ACS(I) accredited fellowships centres and any teaching institute deemed appropriate for the skill

- Course Duration : 6 months

- Course Fees : INR 25,000 + GST

B. GST ON MEMBERSHIP FEES

Dr. Debjit Kar | Dr. Manas Ranjan Puhan | Dr. Jagadish P | Dr. Shashi Kumar B M | Dr. Shyamanta Barua

- In 2022, advanced hearing from the GST Council made it mandatory to collect GST on membership fees of associations/clubs/organisations with retrospective effect.

- We propose that GST be collected henceforth on ACS(I) membership fees

- The ACS(I) membership fees will now be INR 10,000 + 1800 and the same has to reflect in the membership application form and on the website

C. GUIDELINES FOR ACS(I) LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

- This will be the highest award of the Association

- It will be bestowed on an ACS(I) Life Member with a lifetime of outstanding work towards the subspecialties of Surgical and Aesthetic Dermatology

- The awardee will be nominated by the ACS(I) President and the EC and ratified by the Central Council

- The award will be conferred during the Inaugural function of ACSICON

- The award will comprise of a citation, plaque and a shawl to be prepared by the ACS(I) National Secretariat

D. ACS(I) HANDBOOK OF DERMATOSURGERY

- We propose to have an ACS(I) Handbook of Dermatosurgery to complement our Textbook

- It will have step-by-step details of various procedures to serve as a ready reckoner in our hospitals/clinics

- The ACS(I) Academy will invite applications for Editors for this handbook

E. The proposal by Dr T Salim regarding inclusion of president elect and past secretary in EC for one year was discussed and referred to constitution committee. It will be place before AGBM in ACSICON 2023.

The meeting ended with Thanks giving by secretary general Dr Manas Ranjan Puhan & a Groupfie.

ACSICON - 2022 Report

Dr Fabin Thanveer
Organizing Secretary

The 20th Annual Conference of Association of Cutaneous Surgeons (I) was held on September 15, 16 and 17, 2022 at Vythiri Village Resorts, Wayanad, Kerala. The conference was hosted by the Malabar Dermatology Club (MDC) in association with the Association of Cutaneous Surgeons (I). MDC is a vibrant team of dermatologists who are actively involved in disseminating scientific knowledge to professional colleagues in dermatology.

The conference was well attended with over 1200 delegates and had the participation of about 430 co delegates. The conference brought together esteemed dermatologists from across the nation and neighbouring countries too. The event provided a platform for knowledge exchange, discussions on the latest advancements, and practical insights into dermatosurgical techniques and aesthetic procedures.

There were 14 workshops giving in-depth information about cutaneous surgery, aesthetics and photography. Master courses were held on Hidradenitis suppurativa and Scar. Each session will be followed by interactive panel discussions giving opportunity for the delegate to learn. Challenging cases in the area of aesthetics and dermatosurgery were discussed threadbare. The PN Behl Oration was delivered by Dr Raghunatha Reddy. The ACS(I) Innovation award and Quiz were well attended by the participants. Esteemed national and international faculty interacted with the delegates and delivered insightful lectures.

Teeming with exciting events, ACSICON 2022 had ample opportunities not only for scientific debate but also for rejuvenating your body and soul. The conference started on Thursday afternoon continued through Friday and Saturday, culminating on the final night with a gala dinner. The social events were replete with several cultural programs. The mascots Kabini, Zozo and Jaggu were the first of its kind in the history of medical conferencing.

An industry exhibition featured leading companies and manufacturers showcasing state-of-the-art machines. Attendees had the opportunity to explore cutting edge innovations.

The success of the conference was made possible by the dedication and efforts of the organizing committee, office bearers, faculty, sponsors, exhibitors and all delegates.

ACSICON-2024 Venue Visit

Dr A Selvam

Organizing Secretary

Vanakkam from Team ACSICON 24.

It was indeed a privilege to have the honourable EC of ACSI with us for venue inspection for ACSICON 2024.

Our special thanks to honourable President Dr. Shamanta Barua and Secretary General Dr. Manas Puan for their lengthy and tire some travel far away places. The sprit and conviction of all of them were inspiring. Our vice president Dr. Sashi kumar had to come to Mysore airport by road and took a flight to Chennai.

The Meeting held on 04 December was arranged in Hotel Hablis. It was attended by Dr.Maya Vedamoorthy, Dr.Sarveshwari, Dr.Annie Flora, Dr.Kaleeswaran, Dr. Krishna Kant, Dr.G. Ravichandran, Dr. Dinesh Kumar, Dr. Arun Mozhi Varman and Dr. Avitus John.

Our President Dr.Shamanta had briefed about the ACSI and its goal of spreading knowledge of Dermatosurgery across the south india. He requested for a cohesive and collective efforts to do a good job at ACSICON 2024. He stressed the importance of preserving the surplus fund as ACSI has got little revenue generation apart for ACSICON. Myself Dr. A. Selvam the organising secretary had introduced the team as Dr. Dinesh kumar D as organizing chairman, Dr.Arun Mozhi Varman as Treasurer and Dr. Avitus John the scientific chairman. I made the presentation of possible venues for the event. The proposed dates are 16, 17, 18 August 2024. There are two referral for pushing little earlier. The one will be possibility of monsoon rain the month of September (as happened in the last 2years) and to take advantage of the first mover from pharma participation due to impending Dermazone south which has been scheduled in November 2024.

After visiting the two Venues , Four Point Sheraton and Chennai Trade Center, it was decided to select the four point Sheraton as the possible venue.

May I humbly request you to confirm the proposed dates to help to block it, as the said venue is a holiday resort.

Thanks and regards

Dr A Selvam, MD

Organising secretary

ACS(I) Observership Experience

Dr Prachiti Tekam

Hello everyone,

I am Dr Prachiti Tekam. I had applied through ACSI observership program in 2022. I always wanted to do observership under Dr Yogesh Bhingradia sir, as I am very much interested in dermatosurgery. After waiting for the list of ACSI for months, immediately after completing my bond I applied to his centre directly for fellowship. Thanks to my good luck, almost seven days before joining his centre I got mail from ACSI that I got Dr Yogesh sir centre for ACSI observership. Sir was kind enough to return the money I have paid. I will be really grateful to him for his kind gesture.

I completed my observership between 10th July to 9th August 2023. That whole 30 days were a power pack of learning new things each day. Now via various conferences, sir YouTube channel and instapage everyone knew the quality of work he does in field of Dermatosurgery. I guess now whenever anyone utters the word Dermatosurgery, everyone remembers only one person and he is Dr Yogesh Bhingradia the master of Dermatosurgery. And soon he will be the name for Dermatosurgery all over the world.

He is a self-made man. He is very down to earth, sweet and at the same time very funny person. He can crack a joke out of any word. He knows how to keep the working environment happy and healthy. I guess this should be learnt by all HODs of govt medical colleges. He believes in keeping things simple. He believes in one-step solutions to all the problems/diseases. We can learn from him that learning is a continuous process, just keep on learning and most importantly practice what you learn.

His centre is an excellent place to not only learn Dermatosurgery and laser but to learn how to set up and run a private clinic. He will give you tips for your private practice. He will guide you on money-saving practices, but also guide you on spending money on correct things to improve your services. He will give you very simple, practical but yet important tips in dealing with patients, while doing surgery, in handling MR's, in managing your clinic and much more. We can learn how to train our staff to improve their efficacy. The way staff is trained is amazing. He will also remove your fears of side-effects about the machine, drugs so that we can give maximum benefit to our patients. He will teach you to be fearless and try new things, of course with (scientific knowledge), improve your skills every day, and think practically over everything, not just follow books blindly. He is not your guide for that one month, but he is your guide for ever. He is very approachable and he will answer your every query by taking out time from his busy schedule. It's not pure observership, but you get hands-on also on procedure. He is really an ethical man, do not train the quacks.

I can write endlessly about the work he does, about the things I have learnt at his centre, but need to stop somewhere. I am very grateful and lucky to get the opportunity to be his student. Thank you sir for giving me endless knowledge and life lessons to establish and run a clinic. We all made a list by observing the things at your clinic , and it is very useful to all of us. Thank you the entire staff of Shivani skin clinic who were very nice to us and for providing very useful how they work, that will be really helpful to us to teach to our staff.

One month would have not been more happy place to be, without you guys- Dr Kopal Agrawal, Dr PriyaRajoriya, Dr SandipLathiya, Dr PrateekMaharana, Dr Nainikagoel, Dr Vedant, Dr Ajinkya Gujarati.

I would like to thank ACSI for allotting my Dream centre for observership. I would like to recommended Dr Yogesh Bhingradia sir fellowship to all those who are interested in dermatosurgery , but also to those who want to start their private practice. And if possible I feel one should do it just before joining your MD , so that whatever procedure you learn you can practice it throughout your residency , it will be a good time to do hands-on and sharpen your skills.

Thanks and regards
Dr Prachiti Tekam

Welcome to ACSICON 2023

Conference Preparations Report

Date: 30.09.2023

Introduction:

We are delighted to present a progress report on the preparations for the upcoming ACSICON 2023 conference. As the 21st Annual Conference of Cutaneous Surgeons of India, ACSICON 2023 promises to be an exceptional event, and we are making significant strides to ensure its success.

Conference Overview:

Expected Delegates: We anticipate welcoming a total of 1000 delegates from across India and beyond.

Conference Dates: The conference is scheduled to take place from the 5th to the 7th of October.

Weather Update:

We are mindful of the weather conditions in Nagpur during these dates. Nagpur typically experiences pleasant weather in early October, with daytime temperatures ranging from 25°C to 30°C (77°F to 86°F) and cooler evenings. However, it's advisable to check the local weather forecast closer to the event for the most accurate information.

Scientific Workshops:

Our workshops have generated tremendous interest, covering the entire spectrum of Dermatosurgery and Aesthetics procedures. These workshops encompass everything from simple skin biopsies to advanced procedures like hair transplants, Sclerotherapy, Botox, fillers, threads, and regenerative therapies such as PRP and peels.

Key Team Members:

Conference Chairperson : Dr. Rizwan Haq

Secretary : Dr. Nitin Barde

Organizing Co-Chairpersons : Dr. Vikrant Saoji and Dr. Dhanraj Patel

Scientific Chairperson : Dr. Sanjiv Choudhary

Organizing Scientific Co-Chairperson : Dr. Sushil Pande

Scientific Team : The scientific team, led by Dr. Sudhir Mamidwar and Dr. Asra Khumushi, has put in commendable effort to craft an outstanding scientific program that promises to enrich the knowledge and skills of our delegates.

Welcome to ACSICON 2023

Venue Management: Dr. Mohan Shendre and his dedicated team are ensuring that our venue at Le Meridien provides a comfortable and elegant environment for our attendees.

Food Preparation: Dr. Vishal Chadda and his team have taken special care to provide delicious and nutritious food throughout the conference.

Academic Grants Committee: Dr. Vinod Titarmare and his committee are overseeing academic grants, ensuring that we can provide valuable opportunities for our attendees.

Vidarbha Dermatological Society: It's noteworthy that all team members are proud members of the Vidarbha Dermatological Society, a testament to the dedication and unity within our community.

Conclusion:

In summary, the preparations for ACSICON 2023 are progressing exceptionally well, thanks to the dedication of our key team members and their teams. We are committed to delivering an outstanding conference that will foster knowledge exchange, skill enhancement, and networking opportunities for our delegates.

We express our sincere gratitude to all the individuals, teams, and partners who have contributed to the planning and organization of this event. We look forward to welcoming our delegates and creating a memorable and enriching experience for all.

Warm regards,

Dr. Nitin Barde

Secretary, ACSICON 2023

Looking forward to see you at Nagpur...
